

5 DAYS NEPAL EXPERIENCE

Day 01 Kuala Lumpur - Kathmandu

(D)

Upon arrival at Kathmandu meet and greet by our local representative from Clasic Tours sdn bhd, transfer to hotel. After reach hotel free of the day.

Day 02 Kathmandu – Nagarkot

After breakfast drive Bhaktapur, (UNESCO World heritage site in 1979) Bhaktapur is filled with monuments, most terracotta with carved wood columns, palaces and temples with elaborate carvings, gilded roofs, and open courtyards. The city is dotted with pagodas and religious shrines. The Art Gallery has a fascinating collection of ancient manuscripts, thangkas, centuries-old stone sculpture, antique paintings that belong to the Hindu and Buddhist traditions of various periods.

After Bhaktapur drive to Nagarkot which is at a height of 2300 m above sea level. Its commands a classic panorama of the Himalayan ranges. You can see from here many major peaks of the Himalayas, like Langtang, Langtang-lirung, Chobha bhamre, Amadablam, Dorje Lhakpa, Gaurishankar and many peaks of the Himalaya, including Mount Everest on a clear day. From here you can catch excellent view of sunset and sunrise.

Day 03 Nagarkot – Kathmandu

Wake up early morning to catch the sunrise and beautiful view of Himalayan panorama. Clients can wish to go to see the beautiful sights of the village of Nagarkot for little time. On the way back to Kathmandu, you will visit Boudhanath stupa. (UNESCO world heritage site in 1979) This is a fantastic Buddhist stupa at a place known as Buddha, about seven kilometres east of Kathmandu. The largest spherical stupa is held in great veneration both by Lamas of Nepal and Tibet. Drive back to hotel in Kathmandu.

After lunch, we will go to Kirtipur for sightseeing tour. Kirtipur is one of the oldest towns in Kathmandu valley. Kirtipur contains few Buddhists sites both old & new. Cilancho Stupa is of historic importance. A Bihar has been made in Kirtipur, which contain the miniature sites representing Lumbini, the birthplace of Buddha, Boudhgaya where Buddha got enlightenment, Saranath where Buddha gave his first teaching and Kushinagar where Buddha died. Then drive back to hotel.

Day 04 Kathmandu

(B/L/D)

After breakfast drive to famous Durbar Square of Kathmandu (UNESCO World heritage site in 1979) dominated by Shiva temple where the "Living Goddess" overlooks the square from the south. The square itself is squeezed by the palace into two parts: at the southern end is the Kasthamandap, the ancient building that probably gave Kathmandu its name. Our next destination is Patan Durbar square. (UNESCO World heritage site in 1979) Patan Durbar Square complex is perhaps the most photographed of the three durbar squares. Located in the heart of Patan city, this was once the palace of the kings of Patan. The square is a display of Newari architecture that had reached its pinnacle during the reign of Malla kings who were great builders and patrons of the arts. At the last we will be visiting Swoyambhunath Stupa. Swoyambhunath is believed to have been established more than 2,500 years ago. Swoyambhunath (UNESCO World heritage site in 1979) had developed into an important centre of Buddhism. Drive back to hotel.
